5th Annual Horse Show Thrills Crowd of 1,000

More than a thousand horse-lovers sat beneath a scorching sun Sunday afternoon to watch the Richland County Bit and Spur Club, Inc., stage its fifth annual horse show at Stadium field and were unanimous in proclaiming it the most successful horse show ever presented in Mansfield.

The only discordant note in the entire proceedings was the lack of a grandstand to provide shade for the audience.

From the time the grand parade got under way shortly after 12:30 p. m., until the closing event, nearly five hours later, the spectators watched some of the finest horses in the state perform in the various classifications.

Among the most enthusiastic spectators were 40 children from the Richland county Children's Home, who were guests of the club. Transportation to and from the show was provided by the Mansfield Rapid Transit, Inc.

One of the most popular features at the show was Roy Rogers and his horse "Rex." Not the Roy Rogers of movie fame, however, although the rumor spread fast throughout the crowd the famous cowboy-star was present. This Roy Rogers is an active member of the local club who lives at Mansfield, R. D. 1.

The show was judged under Central Ohio Saddle Club association rules by Dr. W. F. Lower of Millersburg, with Jim Hardin acting as ringmaster. The events and winners' names were announced over the loudspeaker system by Harvey Bailey.

Prizes in the 17 events included a trophy, $15 cash and a ribbon for first place; a ribbon and $10 for second; ribbon and $7.50 cash for third place; and a ribbon and

Chop Door To Seize Slots

PORTSMOUTH — (INS) — Portsmouth police Sunday chopped through a four-inch door in the first raids under the city's new gambling law and found themselves today with 22 shot machines and a lot of cold cash.

Led by Police Chief Rudity, officers twice raided the Bohemian club on the east end. Although the chief had a municipal court warrant, he said his men were refused entrance and had to chop down the thick door.

Another raid was made on the east end 1114 club. A new ordinance provides for destruction of all confiscated slots and the confiscated money goes to the police pension fund.

Pleads Innocent To Murder Charge

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Penitentiary and Reformatory Parolee Cecil B. "Red" Martin, pleaded innocent today to first degree murder in the death of his drinking companion, Theodore B. White, whose beaten body was found in a shallow grave near Ashville.

Martin's hearing was continued until June 30 in Columbus in Judge John M. Matthias' municipal court. He is held without bond.

Big Four Accord Reported

Acheson Due Back Tonight

PARIS—(UP)—Russia has agreed to give written assurance that henceforth the west will have the same right of access to Berlin as it had at the end of the war in 1945 it was learned today.

The Soviet guarantee on Berlin will be in the final communique of the council of foreign ministers, which was winding up its conference on Germany and related subjects later today.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson will fly back to Washington tonight in President Truman's personal plane, the Independence.

Western delegates were pleased with the agreement on access to Berlin. They said it was better than had been expected. It was described by one delegate as being "as solid as it is possible to make it on paper."

The Berlin blockade was to a large degree the issue around which this whole conference revolved. The conference itself was summoned as a Soviet condition to lifting the Berlin blockade. After the ceremonial blockade removal, transport labor troubles reimposed it by shutting off rail communications between the city and west Germany.

One major difficulty remained to be ironed out at the last meeting to reach an agreement on Austria. The agreement involves former German properties in Austria which Russia will retain. Russia was insisting upon what amounted to extra-territorial rights. The west insisted that those Soviet-owned plants must operate under Austrian law.

A committee of four experts completed the drafting of the final communique of the conference this morning. In one part of the section on Austria they were understood to have drafted alternative paragraphs —the assets issue on which a final decision was being made this afternoon.

Later in the day the American, British, French and Russian ministers were to put the final seal on the prospective agreement, the first among the Big Four in 30 months.

Robeson Bars Photographers From Wedding

NEW YORK — (UP) — Paul Robeson, jr., 21, son of the pro-Russian negro baritone, married Marilyn Paula Greenberg, a 21-year-old white girl he met at college, yesterday in an atmosphere of tension created by his parents' opposition to press coverage of the event.

The 10-minute ceremony was conducted in the fifth floor apartment of the Rev. John W. Darr, jr., a Congregational minister.

The elder Robesons arrived at Darr's apartment first with the groom. The singer informed reporters and photographers that they would not be admitted to the ceremony nor allowed to take pictures.

When the wedding party left the building, they were hustled into taxis by a contingent of police. One of the policemen had to restrain Robeson from punching a photographer who snapped a picture.

"This marriage would have caused no particular excitement in the Soviet Union," he said. Robeson sent his son to be educated in Russia in 1936.

The wedding reception was combined with a rally given by the council of African affairs to welcome the senior Robeson home from a recent concert tour in Russia. Robeson told an audience of 4,000 he loved the Soviet people "more than any other nation."

LEFT IN SHORTS

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Germain G. Grisez, 19, of Euclid, hitchhiked himself into plenty of trouble early yesterday. He told police two men in a car that picked him up stole his suit and a wallet containing $6. Grisez then was left standing in the street in his underwear.

Sizzling Heat To Remain

Just like the weatherman predicted, Sunday was an ideal day for picnics, providing the picnickers didn't mind the near-90-degree temperatures or didn't stray too far south of the city limits.

While hundreds of Mansfielders sat beneath the trees in the city parks or on their front porches, persons living on the southwestern outskirts of Mansfield rushed to close windows when a sudden thunderstorm produced a shower about 4:30 p. m. Sunday.

Mansfield's highest reading Sunday was 86, with the highest expected today to be 74, but the weatherman said lack of wind will accentuate today's heat. He has one consolation, however, the humidity will not be excessive today.

The broiling sun and sizzling heat are combining to push the mercury up toward new high marks for the year throughout the state today, with temperatures in the 90's forecast.

Forecaster C. G. Andrus, in Cleveland, said similar readings can be expected for the next few days with no end to the heat wave in sight. Some scattered thunderstorms may hit here and there today, he said, but the rainfall is expected to be light.

He said June temperatures have been 4.75 degrees above normal on the daily average.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Chicago said light showers fell in the deluged area of West Virginia, Maryland and Virginia Sunday, but added that they affected the rivers' levels "very little."

Light showers also fell in Portland, Me., where a drouth has parched the surrounding New England vicinity since the Memorial day week end, but they were reported to have offered little relief.

Miners Go Back To Job

Industry Orders Full Production

PITTSBURGH — (UP) — The nation's coal industry ordered full production schedules today to make up the 11,500,000 tons of coal lost durin ghte United Mine Workers one-week "stabilization" holiday.

John L. Lewis' 450,000 miners obeyed their union chief's order to return to work and earn five day's pay before starting their scheduled 10-day annual vacation on Saturday.

But the industry, ready to engage in negotiations with the UMW on four fronts, still faced a full-fleged strike if the scheduled wage talks fail to reach an agreement before the June 30 contract termination date.

Miners began working their shifts at midenight. There were scattered reports of some absenteeism, especially in the western Pennsylvania soft coal fields, but in most mines full work crews started on time.

Reports FBI 'List'

WASHINGTON —(INS)— Judith Coplon told her spy trial jury today that the FBI had prepared a list of people for "custodial detention" in event of war between the United States and Russia.

The 28-year-old ex-government girl made the disclosure as she continued a vigorous denial of espionage charges against her.

Youths State Campaigns

3 Mansfielders Seek Boys' State Posts

Three Mansfield boys were in a heated campaign today for top offices in Boys' State at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware. The 870 boys at the sessions will choose their officials for the week of operating miniature state, county and city governments.

Robert O. Ward, 569 Heineman boulevard, is the Federalist candidate for attorney general.

and Robert H. Rice, 461 Lexington avenue, and Charles G. Young, 659 Manchester road, are candidates for the posts of Chief Justice of the Supreme court.

Another Mansfield delegate, Charles E. Nail, 730 Woodhill road, had been nominated for governor on the Federalist ticket, but all four candidates were deadlocked on the second ballot, so Nail and Darrell Hodge of Middletown withdrew in favor of James S. Doame of Canton. Delegates, however, upset the Federalist plans by voting for the fourth man, Jack Feldman of Euclid.

Nail is serving as secretary of the Federalist party committee, it was learned.

The voters, who will go to the polls sometime today on the campus at Ohio Wesleyan university, are all Ohio high school juniors, who are attending the 10-day workshop in Practical Government which is sponsored annually by the American Legion.

The successful candidates will be sworn in tonight and the mock state government will start functioning tomorrow. During the week there will be legislative sessions, committee hearings and other regular state government functions.

New Cabinet Post Sought

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman today asked Congress to create a tenth cabinet-rank department—a department of welfare—and to put the commerce department in charge of public roads.

The plans—seven all told—were sent to Capitol Hill within a half hour after Mr. Truman signed the long-debated reorganization bill giving him broad powers to merge and streamline government agencies, subject to congressional veto.

The public roads administration now is in the Federal Works Agency. Welfare and social security matters are handled by the federal security agency.

The other five would (a) give the bureau of unemployment security (jobless pay and job placement) to the labor department, (b) reorganize the post-office department, (c) enlarge the scope of executive office of the president, (d) streamline the civil service commission, and (e) strengthen the authority of the chairman of the maritime commission.

Brand New Papas Get Lively Remembrances

It Was Special Father's Day For 7 Dads

By EILEEN DEWHURST

At least seven men in the Mansfield area didn't need gifts of ties or gadgets to remind them yesterday was Father's day.

In fact, they didn't need to worry about gifts from the newest additions to their families because they still are a little young to do their own shopping.

The fathers spent an anxious day waiting for the new arrivals after the stork took a look at the calendar and decided to give them a gift which would make it Father's day all year round.

The busy bird delivered seven babies to General hospital Sunday. He was almost completely impartial, bringing four girls and three boys.

While other Mansfield fathers were taking advantage of their day by getting a little extra attention and service from their families, the seven new dads were pacing the floor and waiting for their first look at their "Father's day gifts."

Five of the babies were born to Mansfielders, the other two to residents of the Mansfield area.

The new arrivals included daughters born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Komives, 57 Cook road; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Flick, 122 South Michigan avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Golden, Mansfield, R. D. 2; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Speck, Shelby; and sons born to Mr. and Mrs. John Mowers, 309 Ohio street; Mr. and Mrs. H. Mervin Boals, Lakeville, R. D. 1; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sampsel, Mansfield, R. D. 3.

Prefers Jail To Trouble With Wife

CANTON—(AP)— Which is better: Jail or a rough time with the little woman?

Zane Ray Kennedy, 24, of Alliance, O., chose jail today in common pleas court. He had pleaded guilty to driving a car without the owner's consent several weeks ago and was up on a probation hearing.

He told the court he had been having a "little trouble" with his wife and would prefer jail to probation. Judge Paul G. Weber obliged. The sentence: One to 20 years in Ohio reformatory.

M'Cullough Elected To Legion Job

Named District Vice Commander

Dwight A. McCullough, past commander of McVey Post No. 16, American Legion, and Fourth division commander of the Legion, was elected vice commander of the Fifth district at the district's "little convention" held in Mansfield yesterday.

Ralph Cutter of McVey post was elected Richland county commander. W. O. McClelland, of Elyria, was elected Fifth district commander, and Harry Crissinger, of Galion, Fifth district chaplain.

Elected as delegate to the national convention at Philadelphia in August were 15 from the Fifth district including Mansfielders J. L. Zimmerman, John Bell and R. B. Gardner. McCullough, as vice commander, automatically became a delegate.

Among resolutions passed at the business meetings were two which will be sent to the state and national conventions. One was to increase national dues by 25 cents per member per year to meet increase rehabilitation expenses. The other was to install district and state officers in September instead of October.

SITES SELECTED

The group decided to hold their fall conference in Willard and their next "little convention" in Tiffin next summer.

Approximately 400 delegates, visitors, and guests attended the meetings.

Among the guests were Mayor Roy L. Vaughn, who welcomed the group to Mansfield; George Craig, of Brazil, Ind., a candidate for national commander; and Bruce Henderson, of Warren, a candidate for Department of Ohio Commander.

Following the business sessions, the trumpeters of McVey post played several numbers. They included Wynn Murray, Richard Zimmerman and Jack Lewis. They were accompanied by Mrs. Kay Fairman at the piano.

Also on the program was a specialty number by Jack Lewis, and a trio composed of John Grabler, Richard Zimmerman, and Ernest Santos.

Robert Dickerson was general chairman of arrangements for the convention. He was assisted by Hollis Moorhead, J. L. Zimmerman, John Stentz, Harry Eyerly, Don Gale, and Bryan Sivert.

Robert Hayes was in charge of the dinner served at 1 p. m.

Insurance Dividend Declared

Payments Due In '50

WASHINGTON —(AP) — Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray jr., today authorized payment next year of a special $2,800,000,000 dividend on National Service Life insurance policies.

Gray said he hopes veterans will begin receiving checks "some time in January, 1950," with payment substantially completed in the first half of that year.

The dividend payment has been hopefully anticipated by some economists as a stimulant to purchasing power which might help offset declining business activity.

A premature announcement of the action was put out by VA yesterday, but recalled because Gray had not yet signed the order. He signed it this morning.

About 16,000,000 veterans of World War II will receive the dividends.

This would average about $175 for each ex-serviceman, but the agency said individual calculations have not been completed.

In general, every veteran who took out National Service insurance and kept it in force at least three months will be eligible. Where policy-holders have died, the beneficiaries will receive the funds, Gray said

Application blanks for the dividends are being prepared and may be available in August in postoffices, veterans' service organizations, and VA offices.

Meantime the administrator asked veterans not to write now about their dividends because letters "will only cause the payment to be delayed."

Read Out Of Church

Czech Reds Excommunicated

VATICAN CITY —(AP)— The Roman Catholic church today excommunicated members of the government-sponsored Catholic Action society of communist-dominated Czechoslovakia.

Meanwhile, in Prague, the communist government's security police apparently tightened their guard on Archbishop Josef Beran's palace today following communist heckling of the prelate at Sunday's cathedral services. The heckling drove him from his cathedral and prevented him from completing his sermon.

Attempts of many persons to talk to the archbishop today were foiled by security police supervising the palace reception desk and telephone switchboard.

Communist interruptions of the Archbishop's Corpus Christi day sermon in St. Vitus cathedral yesterday brought the long battle between church and state to its highest tension. The Archbishop, defiantly resisting communist efforts to control the church and break the spiritual rule of the Vatican over Czechoslovakia's 9,000,000 Catholics, had to leave the pulpit and return to his palace.

The whistling jeering broke out from demonstrators bunched near the altar as the Archbishop began a denunciation of the government's moves against the church.

Frease Hits Sale Rumor

Rumors that the Empire Steel company would be disposed of by the Studebaker corporation were all termed "unfounded" today by president of the company D. W. Frease. Frease said the plant is goint on a vacation schedule the first two weeks of July, but that maintenance and some departments will continue working during that period.

"As far as I'm concerned, Frease said, "all the rumors are false. I know of a group trying to buy the company, but Studebaker is not ready to talk about it, and there is nothing in the wind of change of ownership.

Empire Steel is a wholly owned subsidiary of Studebaker.

'Girl Friday' Tells Her Boss Rotarians Deserve Pat On Back

Dear Mr. W.: The Convention of Rotary Clubs is something to make a note about. . . . Not only were they the greatest number of visitors (in one bunch) to Our Town, but they will be affectionately remembered for these reasons: They conducted themselves like Ladies & Gentlemen; they didn't congest traffic or bother anyone with practical jokes (the way certain other conventioneers did — what bores!); they packed Madison Square Garden to hear men of authority on how to improve the world; they butt out of political controversies and besides all that—they brought along money which they spent all over town.

Good tippers, too. . . . I think they all merit a very lusty Thank-You-Come-Again ta ta.

Clare Boothe Luce has another new book called "The Twlight of God." Knopf will publish Nov. 1.

Collier's got lucky again. Its next issue features a story about Tucker (of that motor car) who was indicted the other day. Nifty timing--considering the mag goes to bed four weeks in advance.

The Walter Whites have a story too. I'm letting the Desk handle it.

The newspapers ran a story this week saying that the vice president of an advertising agency had resigned and was being replaced by Thomas Sutherland. . .It turned out that "Mr. Sutherland" was a very frightened office boy at that agency—the joint victim of a hoaxer.

The plot obviously was to hurt the executive, who got five offers from competitive agencies, as a result. The newspapers promised retractions.

Burton Rascoe, the literary and dramatic critic, is finishing a book for Breystone Press. He called to say you might be interested to learn this: That he has a bulky collection of shocking violations of the common rules of grammar and syntax from Time Magazine, The New Yorker, the N. Y. Times and many highbrow and semi-highbrow mags and current textbooks—"on the proper use of the language."

And, says Mr. Rasoce, he combed your column for months seeking a lulu "and finding not even a minor slip". . .Rascoe says we all make them, and you must have erred sometime. He wants you to submit an example "so you can be in the company of eminent grammarians, statesmen and lexicographers". . .Is yiz interested?

Spoke to Tex McCrary. Said he mentioned you in controversies. Thawt there should be more of them—and more fights between newspapers, too. The public, he added, is always the winner in these fights.

Mr. McCrary quoted the following from his essays on the criticism of the Dept. of Defense: "Walter Winchell's batting average on important stories has been far higher than most news agencies, and he can measure his record against that of the N. Y. Times when it comes to being no sucker for the wiles of special pleaders. He has been a good reporter."

Union Picks Right-Wing Delegates

Local 711 Names Convention Envoys

A full slate of right-wing delegates and alternates to the national United Electrical Workers convention in Cleveland was named yesterday by members of Local 711, UEW, CIO. The convention will be held in Cleveland in September

About 200 union members met yesterday afternoon in Johnny Appleseed auditorium to name the delegates.

Joseph T. Hawkins, president of the local, said the delegates were swept to a victory by two and a half to one and three to one majorities. Hawkins reported that early in the meeting a move was made by left-wing supporters to extend debate on a lengthy agenda propoosed by them. This attempt and another to permit two international representatives to join in the meeting was rejected by a majority of four to one, he said.

The delegates to the convention are pledged to vote against the present top leadership of the UE, Albert Fitzgerald, international president; Julius Emspak, secretary-treasurer; and James Matles, director of the organization.

The elected delegates are Hawkins, Russel Yarman, chief steward; James Young, first vice-president; Thomas Flood, financial secretary; Jacob Campbell and Robert Petee, both trustees of the union.

Alternates chosen were Thomas Campbell, Glenn Hedges and William Biddinger.

The elected delegates and alternates are to support Fred Kelley, General Electric, Lynn, Mass., for the presidency; Michael Fitspatrich, Westinghouse, East Pittsburgh, Pa., as secretary-treasurer, and John Dillon, Ford Instrument plant, Long Island, N. Y., for director of the organization.

Casual Visitors Can See Signs Of Recovery On Part of Europe

The look of fear has left the face of Europe.

Its peoples are better fed, better clad and more hopeful of the future.

These are a few of the impressions gained by a group of former war correspondents during a two-week tour of five European countries.

A fortnight on the continent hardly qualifies a poor man's philosopher to pose as an authority on Europe's complex political and economic problems. But a country reflects the collective plight of its individual citizens. And even the most casual traveler cannot help but see the immense betterment of living conditions for Europeans now as compared to the mid-1940's.

How much is due to their own initiative? How much have they been able to lift themselves by their American bootstrap — the Marshall Plan?

These are questions for the research bird dogs of government and finance to determine. But the ordinary visitor, coming back for the first time since the war years, notes little signs of recovery.

In England they have strawberries on the hotel menu, and a melty substance similar to what is known in the United States as ice cream.

It is possible now to get a taxi in London without leaping four feet into the air, cracking your heels together and yelling "Keb!" at the peak of your lungs.

At a small restaurant in Isigny, France, near the invasion beach landings, the waiter brings a bottle of good wine for 400 francs — less than $1.30. Is this possible? Hasn't there been a mistake?

No, it is true. History records no example of a French waiter ever making an error in the bill that favored the customer. Cognac is inexpensive also.

The hope that grows in France is shown in its rising birthrate, too. The land is alive with youngsters of 3, 4 and 5.

In gay Paree it is again possible for a tourist to emerge from his hotel without having both legs broken by rival black marketeers tackling him for the privilege of changing his money.

The glory of France, its cuisine, is limitless again. The bread — wonderful, crust-crunchy French bread — is back. And there is gold with a floavor to spread upon it, the butter of Normandy.

Belgium knows the same wealth of food. So does tiny Luxembourg, and adds another boon —fresh cold milk, a fluid the French seem to regard in its raw form as a kind of poison excreted by cows in a pasture plot to destory mankind.

The earth of Germany is being tilled as never before. The store-fronts have glass in the windows, and the windows are full of goods to sell.

Many German cities remain rubble heaps, but the beaten look is going out of the people Give a German a cigaret or chocolate bar today and he steadfastly refuses to drop dead of gratitude. He hardly even fawns anymore.

Returning to London, I was struck by the thought that nowhere on the continent or in England had I heard three "fear words" we heard so often in the United States —"war," "communism," and "depression."

I commented on this to a friend who has spent 20 years reporting continental affairs. I asked him what Europeans really thought of the United States.

"Right now they think Americans are a little hysterical," he said dryly.

Well, are we?

Checks On Call Tie-Up

L. R. Wittemire, manager of the Mansfield Telephone company, said today he has been checking with operators to determine why a doctor could not be reached when Glee W. Freese 737 West Fourth street suffered a heart attack early Sunday morning, June 12, and died before help could be summoned.

"The telephones neighbors used to summon a doctor were not out of order. As far as we can determine, several neighbors were trying to use the same party line at the same time," Wittemire said.

"When one of the neighbors did finally get a line," continued Wittemire, "he failed to leave the number where he could be reached again. The telephone company official stated there was a doctor available at the time, who could have helped the family but the operator had no means of getting in touch with the neighbor again."

Clear Skies Ease Threat

13 Feared Dead In Potomac Flood

PETERSBURG, W. VA. — (UP) — Rainless skies heartened thousands of Shenandoah and Potomac valley residents today as they dug out of the worst flood devastation in the district's history.

As the muddy flood waters of the Potomac and Shenandoah river branches recided, death toll rose to 13 with eight bodies recovered and five other victims presumed dead. Authorities estimated from 11 to 20 victims still were missing.

The rain-swollen tributaries of the two rivers in West Virginia and Virginia raged over their banks Saturday. Hundreds were made homeless and property damage mounted into the millions

National guardsmen, state police, red cross workers and volunteers joined into gigantic rescue force to cope with the widespread disaster and suffering.

Second army headquarters at Fort Meade, Md., rushed land and water craft, 200 cots and 400 blankets to the stricken area.

Health authorities gave typhoid innoculations to residents at Bridgewater, Va., and Petersburg and Moorefield, W. Va., the hardest hit communities. Truckers, ploughing through washed out roads and makeshift bridges, hauled in fresh water, food, clothing, bedding an odther essentials.

Huge Vault Holds City Water Supply

By GAYLORD HAKE

Buried on Cook road, a few hundred yards west of Lexington avenue, is a huge concrete vault with an area of 300 square feet. Only a few dozen Mansfielders have ever entered it.

This vault—Woodland reservoir—is one of the most important links in the city's water supply system.

The only openings to the surface from the reservoir, which is constructed of concrete some 20 inches thick, are two holes about three feet in diameter.

Spaced at 20-foot intervals are concrete posts to support the roof of the reservoir. These posts are 20 inches in diameter.

Inside the reservoir late last week, a group of city employes removed hundreds of pounds of sediment from the water that is routed through it on its way to Mansfield homes

This fine sediment iron and sand—is as pure as the water, city officials say.

Electric light bulbs were strung the length of the reservoir to provide light for the workers. Without these lights the interior would be close to complete darkness.

STALACTITES FARM

Conditions in the reservoir resemble a hugh cave. There are tiny pure white stalactites forming from the ceiling. Water never reaches the top of the reservoir. The stalactites are probably formed from water seeping through the concrete roof and carrying with it lime from the concrete.

The reservoir was built in 1926 or 1927, city officials weren't sure which, and now is completely covered with high grass and weeds.

It is 18½ feet in depth and will hold six million gallons of water. It has a drain that empties into a storm sewer on Cook road

A group of high school youngsters hired during their vacation cleaned the interior of the reservoir. The temperature inside was about 50 degrees.

A whisper echoing in the reservoir emerges as a shout

Sanitary Engineer B. V. Bevier, who supervised the work inside the reservoir, is certain it was the nosiest place in Mansfield, with the group of young workers testing their voices.

Dismissed Officer's Appeal Deadline Set For Wednesday

Former city Patrolman Roger C. Zimmerman, dismissed from the force for shielding a hit skip driver, has until midnight Wednesday to file an appeal with the civil service commission.

T. A. Woodard, commission chairman, said today that no appeal has been received by him.

Last week Zimmerman's attorney Robert Lett told a News-Journal reporter the patrolman was "definitely going to appeal the dismissal."

A notification that the dismissal would be appealed was received from Zimmerman by Service-Safety Director Earl T. Garrison.

However, Woodard said a request for the appeal must be presented to the civil service commission within 10 days of the dismissal, which was June 13.

Tribe Takes Series From New Yorkers

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer.

Bob Feller is up to his old tricks again—engaging in his favorite pastime of making the baseball experts eat their words.

It was only a couple of days ago the experts predicted, for the eleventh time, that the erstwhile great Cleveland pitcher was through. Insisted as a washout hurler. And as he did on so previous occasions, the 30-year-old right-hander has proved them wrong.

He stilled them yesterday with a brilliant 11-inning pitching performance as the Indians defeated the New York Yankees, 4-2. Feller allowed six hits, only one in the last seven innings.

The Van Meter (Ia.) farmboy, who won 122 games in five straight complete seasons for the Indians, reached the nadir of his pitching fortunes just eight days ago. On June 11, the Yankees bombed him for the most humiliating defeat of his career, shelling him from the mound in the first inning.

That was the signal for many of the scribes to start writing Feller's baseball obituary. They were forced to hold up when Bob came back three days later to beat the Red Sox in Boston with a six-hit effort.

SEVEN OF EIGHT

Feller's victory yesterday was a very important one for the fourth place Indians. It gave them the series from the league leaders—two games to one—and moved them up to within five and a half games from the top. They've now won seven of their last eight and trail the third place Philadelphia Athletics by only one game.

A home run with one on by First Baseman Mickey Vernon broke up the game in the 11th. Joe Page, who had replaced starter Allie Reynolds in the seventh, was the loser. Tommy Henrich drove in one of the Yankees' two-runs with his 13th homer, his third off Feller.

Vernon started at first base for the first time in six games. He was back at his old station because Manager Lou Boudreau had returned to shortstop for the injured Ray Boone.

Spectacular fielding by outfielders of both teams highlighted the thriller. Three running catches by Dale Mitchell and another by Larry Doby saved the day for Feller along with a leaping catch by Bob Kennedy as Tommy Henrich's drive was about to drop in the right field seats.

Aided by homers by Ted Williams and Dom DiMaggio, each with two mates aboard, the Boston Red Sox walloped the Chicago White Six, 9-2, to sweep the four-game series.

Lefthander Chuck Stobbs, allowed seven hits for his first major league victory.

TIGERS TAKE TWO

The second place Detroit Tigers, behind the superb pitching of Virgil Trucks and Fred Hutchinson, shut out the Washington Senators in both ends of a doubleheader, 9-0 and 7-0, to cut New York's margin to three games.

Philadelphia and St. Louis divided a doubleheader, the Athletics winning the first game, 6-2, and the Browns taking the second, 7-5. Rookie Alex Kellner won his ninth game for the A's, scattering six hits.

Joe Ostrowski stopped the Monarchs with a seven-hitter in the nightcap.

Chuck Diering's ninth inning single scored Lou Klein with the run that gave the second place St. Louis Cardinals a 6-5 victory over Philadelphia and put them only one game behind the National league leading Brooklyn Dodgers. Robin Roberts, who shut out the Redbirds on Friday, was the loser. Ted Wilks, in relief, was the winner.

Johnny Sain pitched the Cincinnati Reds to a 6-2 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates to snap a seven-game losing streak. Ewell Blackwell became a

2 Weeks Remain In First Half of N-J 'A' Golf Loop

The News - Journal golf league enters the home stretch of the first half season this week with Gibson Studebaker still riding in the driver's seat.

One more week of play is left after Tuesday night and if Joe Mayer and company can hold their present lead this week they are a good bet to come in with the first half prize money. Gibson now has 318½ points to 299½ for Ideal Billiards, the team composed of Pete Thomas, Red Dillon, Phil Schwaner and Bob Henry.

Only one team, Lee's Lunch is already mathematically eliminated from the first half crown. Standings are: Gibson Studebaker, 318½; Ideal Billiards, 299½; Blue Goose Tavern, 281½; Meyers Beer, 279½; Drive - In - Elite, 268; Hall's Shamrock Market, 254; Penn Auto - Sporting Goods, 249; Komito's Clothes, 207; PD's Bar, 198; Lee's Lunch, 171½.

Mansfield Legion Junior Team Loses To Marion

MARION—Merle Daum, who pitched two victories over Mansfield Senior high's baseball team this spring, was in the hair of a Mansfield nine again yesterday. Daum hit two doubles and drove in two runs to lead the Marion American Legion nine to a 6-4 victory over the Mansfield Legion.

Manager Dewey Durant's Mansfielders took a 4-0 lead in the early innings, but Marion drove Dave Hardy to the showers with two runs in the sixth and four in the seventh.

PAIR IN THIRD

Mansfield got its initial two tallies in the third when Hardy singled. Tom Tucker walked and Ronnie Williams and Ken McCally followed with singles. Two more came in the fifth on a base on balls to Jim Reiner and a triple by McCally. McCally tried to stretch his hit to a homer and was safe when the catcher dropped the ball.

Two walks, a single and Daum's first double produced Marion's two runs in the sixth. In the seventh, two walks, a hit, and an error, preceded Daum's second two-bagger.

Gene Yohn came to the rescue and for the second straight day did not allow a hit in a relief appearance.

Two Jumpers Get Back In Big Leagues

NEW YORK — (AP) — Two weeks after Commissioner A. B. Chandler's edict forgiving all Mexican league jumpers, only two of the score of reinstated players have reclaimed their old baseball jobs in the majors.

They are Lou Klein, St. Louis Cardinal infielder who is filling in for the aching-back Marty Marion at shortstop, and George Hausmann, who has taken over second base for the New York Giants.

A half dozen other athletes granted amnesty expect to return to organized baseball in the next few days.

The rest appear temporarily stymied — either they don't want to come back or there's no "welcome" mat out for them.

Mickey Owen, the one-time Brooklyn catcher who spearheaded the movement to have the five-year bans lifted, said he planned to join the Dodgers tomorrow in Cincinnati.

Also headed for the Dodgers is Luis Olmo, who has been playing outfield for the Pastora club in Venezuela.

In Canada, two former "outlaw" pitchers — Fred Martin and Harry Feldman—announced they would return to U. S. baseball jobs shortly.

Martin's old mound mate, Max Lanier, still is balking. He says he is not willing to leave his Quebec provincial league post for the $11,500 salary and "earn-your-spurs" proposition offered by the Cardinals.

Martin and Lanier have $2,500,000 in damage suits pending against organized baseball.

The other player testing baseball's right to banish employes — former New York Giant outfielder Danny Gardella — has announced he doesn't want to "return." He's also playing semi-pro ball in Canada.

2 Mohican Skippers In First Place

Mansfield Mohican Sailing club and Akron Portage Lakes club won the only double victories in the fourth annual Ohio Inter - Club Yacht association regatta ended yesterday on Charles Mill lake.

The Mohicans finished one-two in the Y Flyers and Sun-Ray classes. Fritz Constance led the Y's followed by Milt Stenzel while Eddie Macy and Egon Loeckel paced the Sun-Rays. The Portage sailors swept all three places in the Snipe and Class "C" canoe events. C. D. Zimmerman won the Mansfield News-Journal trophy for his victory in the Snipe race.

All titles were decided on total points accumulated in two races Saturday and one yesterday morning. All three races, however, were little more than "coasting" events as a complete lack of breeze hampered all of the 107 skippers who represented 21 sailing clubs and three states at the big inland regatta.

Little Leatherlips Yacht club, of Columbus, took home three of the 27 prizes, including the Governor's trophy (donated by Tom Herbert) for a team victory in the Thistle class.

The new 18-foot rescue boat which Frank Bissman presented to the Mohican Sailing club Saturday, was ordered out of the water. The boat, which was to be used only as a protection measure for the Mohican fleet, has a 22-horsepower engine. Boats on Charles Mill are permitted only six-horse motors.

The summary:

LIGHTNING CLASS—Won by H. C. Zimmer, South Shore club; 2. John Rundt, South Shore; 3. Frank Rose, Leatherlips.

Penn Auto Blasts Akron Navy, 14 To 4

Penn Auto-Sporting Goods broke out in its biggest scoring rash of the season yesterday as it smothered the Akron Naval Air Station under a 14-4 score at Blue Goose park.

One of the features of the game was the snapping of a bad batting slump by Jack Hammett. He drove out two home runs and a single to lead the attack and more closely resemble his batting form of last year.

Don Hardy, Mike Gruber and Wilbur Wade also collected two hits apiece to help in the scoring barrage.

Penn scored in each of the first six innings while Dutch Bader held Akron to single tallies in the third and fourth and two in the fifth. He was touched for only five hits and struck out nine while walking three.

It was the sixth victory against three defeats for the Mansfield nine.

SHILOH — Mansfield T. & E. Tavern surprised the Shelby American Legion with an 11-7 victory in a non-league baseball game here yesterday.

Shiloh was rated to have one of the better teams in the area and had beaten Mansfield Penn Auto-Sporting Goods, 7-1, earlier in the season. The Taverns, however, combed three host pitchers for 13 hits.

Jay Bardon and Dave Miller led the parade with home runs. Miller also had a double. On the defensive side Ernie Tinkey gave up nine hits, but kept Shiloh behind all the way. T. and E. scored a run in the first inning, was tied in the third, but forged ahead to stay with four tallies in the fourth.

Three Mansfield Golfers Qualify for Publinx

Ted Etzel Leader In Akron District

Three of Mansfield's best public links golfers will be part of a field of 80 which will compete for the Ohio Public Links championship Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Breathnach Country club in Cuyahoga Falls.

The trio—Ted Etzel, Pete Thoma and Bernie Mathias—all qualified for the big event by firing fine scores in the fourth ADGA Amateur-Amateur best-ball tournament of the season yesterday at Tam-O-Shanter, Canton.

Etzel rang up a 71 yesterday for a 73-71—144 qualifying score, the best of the 16 men to qualify from the Akron district. Pete Thoma shot a four-over 74 for a 73-74—147 qualifying score and a tie for third place among the 16. Bernie Mathias was tied for sixth with 75-73—148. The two best rounds of the four best-ball tournaments counted as qualifying tallies.

36 HOLES FRIDAY

The state tournament opens with 36 holes of medal play Friday with the top 15 and defending champ Vic Chiaverini starting match play Saturday morning. Two 18-hole matches per day will bring the joust down to the finals Sunday afternoon.

A pro-amateur best-ball will be held Thursday to get the competitors used to the course. Mathias is the only Mansfielder to play in this event, as he has entered with John Cseh of Akron.

Cseh was just as hot as the weather in yesterday's best-ball as he set a new Hills course record at Tam-O-Shanter with a five-under-par 65. He and his partner, Trout, teamed for a best-ball 63 over the unusually long course to walk away with honors.

Highest placing Mansfield duo was Etzel and Red Dillon, who tied for fifth with a best-ball 68. Etzel had 71, Dillon, 74. Other Mansfield best-ball scores included Thoma-Bernie Mathias, 70; Gene Lichtle-Arnie Adams, 68; Cid Mathias-Pete Zeides, 72; and Grant Hannewald-Frank Jocha, 77.

In Class B, Charley Stine and Ralph Postlewaite came in with a best-ball 91 for fifth place, while Ned Simon and Jim Cunningham had a 93 for sixth.

Etzel drew some additional honors in the Steeplechase, which ended yesterday, as he picked up a $7.50 merchandise prize for third place tie in that event. Etzel had a 203 score to tie with R. Yaworksi of Akron. Cseh and Andy Stashaw tied for first with 202 and got $17.50 each.

The Steeplechase was an individual medal handicap event in which the best three scores of the four best-balls were counted. Etzel had 73-74—71 with a five-stroke-per-round handicap for his 203.

Waitkus May Quit Hospital In 3 Weeks

CHICAGO — (AP) — Philadelphia baseball player Eddie Waitkus continued to improve today and one of his doctors said he might leave the hospital in three weeks.

Waitkus was shot and wounded seriously last wednesday by a 19-year-old brunette typist. The shooting occurred in the hotel room of Ruth Ann Steinhagen, who said she had a "crush" on the first baseman.

Illinois Masonic hospital attendants said the 28-year-old ball playre scondition today is "good," adding that he spent "a pretty good night" last night.

Yesterday Dr. L. L. Braun, physican for the Chicago Cubs, said Waitkus might leave the hospital in three weeks.

The ball player was quoted Saturday as saying he will prosecute Miss Steinhagen when he leaves the hospital.

The slender, six-foot girl is in Cook county jail pending a hearing June 30 on a charge of assault with intent to murder. While in jail, she is writing her autobiography for a court paychiatrist.

Cary and Lloyd Tie For Top In Motor City Open

DETROIT — (UP) — Dr. Cary Middlecoff and dapper Lloyd Mangrum today ruled as co-champions of the motor city open golf tournament and were $2,250 richer for battling to a tie in a hectic 11-hole "sudden death" playoff.

Middlecoff, showing that his national open triumph wasn't a fluke, shoved idle Sammy Snead off the top money winner's seat. The Memphis dentist upped his earnings to $14,249.57, some $417 more than Snead has earned this year.

The co-champs entered the final round of play in the four-day tourney with even cards yesterday. After shooting 18 tense holes in three-under-par 69's they were deadlocked at the end of the regulation 72-hole route with 11-under-par 273 cards.

Trailing them by two strokes was big Jim Ferrier of San Francisco who ended with a 275—good enough for $1,400.

Bannister faces formidable competition from Yale's George Wade, fastest outdoor miler in Eli history.

Wagner-Levine Match Slated

CLEVELAND — (INS) —Light heavyweights Dick Wagner and Artie Levine may get their scheduled 10-round return match over with tonight in Cleveland if the weather doesn't interfere again.

Wagner, the Portland, Ore., walloper and Levine, the battler from Brooklyn, were kept apart by two postponements last week when threatening weather forced matchmaker Larry Atkins to call off the bouts.

Jimmy Bivins will face Willis "String" Bean of Los Angeles in another 10-rounder and three sixes will complete the card.

College Champ Signs As Pro

OKLAHOMA CITY — (AP) — The youngest professional in the history of American women's golf was welcomed into the field for the western open tournament here today.

Marilynn Smith, 20-year-old University of Kansas sophomore, said she had agreed to terms with A. G. Spalding Bros., and would sign a contract July 1.

The youthful links star won the national intercollegiate tournament at Columbus, O., the past week, defeating Grace Lenczyk, 3-2.

Miss Smith, rated a top contender in the western which opened today, said she would travel to various colleges and country clubs for exhibitions and clinics.

Todd's Squad Wins 2 Games

Todd's Jewelry softball team wrapped up a pair of 3-2 victories yesterday afternoon, beating North Lake park by the score here in the afternoon and trimming Columbus Merchants in a night game at Prospect, Ohio.

Dale McKinley was on the mound in both and gave up five hits each time. He would have had a shutout in the night game except for two home runs by Jim Roth of the Columbus team.

Sport Scribe Says 'Ez' Charles Looks Worse Than Walcott In Title Workouts

By JACK CUDDY

KANKAKEE, Ill. —(UP) —The quickest comparison that can be made of Wednesday night's contenders for Joe Louis' vacant heavyweight crown is this: Ezzard Charles appears worse than Jersey Joe Walcott.

Here in the land where the elms are luxuriantly green, the wild cherry trees are budding, and the honeysuckle bushes are showing pink berries, Jake (Madman) Mintz presides over a training camp that seems distraught and wacky as time runs out for Charles.

Brown-skinned Ezzard, of Cincinnati, concluded his boxing preparations in comparative privacy today at the Sunset Hills Country club; but over the week end the large sideshow tent in which he sparred was crowded with midwestern fans and with boxing writers from most of our major cities.

Charles appeared so pathetic yesterday, for example, that many of the joust-journalists wondered if the 27-year-old Negro — wearing headguard and masklike, protective rubber flaps over his cheeks — were "putting on an act." He was such a surprisingly easy target for each of his four sparmates that the boxing experts were amazed.

True, Charles was concentrating on slamming low hooks to the midriffs of his mates; but, in so doing, he was leaving openings that might prove "fatal" against Walcott, who was explosive enough to floor Louis three times in their two title bouts.

In the oven-like heat of the green, orange-trimmed tent, the man in the mask and little mustachio appeared molasses slow not only on defense but also on offense. It seemed that each of the sparmates — Al Smith, Gene Jones, Lloyd Gibson and Pedro Bradley — iadelled out more punishment than he received.

From lip to lip, around the ringside sped the comment: "He looks awful. Walcott'll knock him out."

Mintz, front man for Charles' three Cincinnati managers, appeared paler and jerkier than usual. Although Ezzard had been scheduled to finish his sparring yesterday, Jake excitedly ordered today's extra sessions. It seemed that a training gash on Ezzard's left cheek, suffered a week ago, had prevented Charles from sharpening properly in the closing stage of training. To prevent that gash from being re-opened, he wore the rubber flaps in the ring.

A reporter asked Jittery Jake when Charles planned to break camp and come to Chicago.

"That's our business," Mintz replied tartly. "We're not giving that out. The iron curtain comes down on Charles Tuesday morning. We don't want anybody to know our plans—not after what happened early Sunday morning—when I had to call the state police."

Mintz explained that an automobile, with lights out, had driven up before Charles' cottage at 2:30 a. m. Sunday. When Charles' handlers came out to investigate, the automobile was turned quickly and driven away.

"I don't trust nobody, now," he concluded. "I got no conference in nobody now—not even you newspaper fellers."

New Device To Cut Cost Of Phoning

Transistor Steps Up Voice Power

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON —(UP)— If you are old enough, you probably remember grandad cranking up the party line phone and calling "long distance." Talking to somebody 20 or 30 miles away.

Gramps doubtless could have done just as well standing out there in the hollow and blowing his echo against the four winds.

Well, to hear the Bell people, who run the phone business, tell it—all that sort of thing is old fashioned. The "hello" gang has come up with a tiny new device that would cut the old gent down to a whisper.

It's called a "transistor." It consists of a piece of something they call "germanium" and is about the size of a pin head. An electric current sent into the transistor controls a current that comes out 100 times stronger.

You get the idea. You can hear Tokyo, say, as clearly as you can the guy next door when he calls on the phone in the middle of the night to tell you to cut down on the noise.

The way they do it is so complicated I won't try to explain it. Wouldn't, even if I understood it myself.

I went through the Bell exhibit of the "phone of tomorrow" at the Washington Hotel here. A Mr. Prescott, who was a study in brown and acted like he knew all about it (not saying he didn't) guided us around.

He had a chart on the wall, "Take 1927," he said, pointing a pointer to the chart. In order to place a call from Washington to Chicago at that time you asked the operator for long distance. Then you asked for a number in Chicago. All of that went through half dozen switch boards. In five minutes, if you were lucky, you had the party. You had a patch-work of wires from here to there. Maybe you could hear and maybe you couldn't."

All of this was accomplished in two minutes in 1940, the bright young man said. Now? It's zingo! Less than a minute.

It all adds up to a lot of radio relay systems which shoot the message through the air.

Mr. Prescott led us to believe that the new system of talking to yourself around the world—and being able to hear yourself—will be a lot cheaper. I hope so.

I have paid so many long distance phone tolls in my time I don't much care whether we eventually have phones in our cars and television over the telephone. Or what.

All I am happy about is that I got one on the house from Bell. I talked to an operator in Chicago named Geranium.

The man asked would I like to talk to anybody else? Since it was free, I said, yes. Let's get hold of Aunt Mable up in Marinette, Wis. We tried the new system. Around the world in nothing flat. I got hold of a pantpresser named Bob in Manitowoc.

Wrong number.

HOROSCOPE

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Tuesday, June 21

ALTHOUGH there may be blocks or reversals in the putting over of major objectives of large scope and enduring value, yet quick work, concentrated efforts built upon sound and far-reaching techniques, with an eye to long-term and enduring reaping rather than a current "flash in the pan" purpose may flourish. Present intensive or experimental tactics may not at first impress superiors or attract working capital. But earnest attack, supplemented by clever manipulation, eventually wins over desired aid. Do not hesitate with revolutionary ideas practically executed.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is, may seem at first to be blocked or opposed, finding it difficult to win the attention and concrete financial aid from those whose cooperation may be deemed indispensable. However, in the long run, industry, persistent efforts, and sound tactics in demonstrating the practicability of unique, novel or experimental ideas or techniques, will break down opposition or want of interest, thus attracting substantial promotional assistance for long-term and enduring objectives. The far vision pursued with confidence and integrity may "move Mountains."

A child born on this day is endowed with exceptional talents and originality, with substantial qualities to win out against want of support, eventually establishing position and public recognition.

Turnesa Leads Walker Cup Team Roster

NEW YORK — (AP) — Willie Turnesa, who will lead the U. S. Walker cup forces against Britain's invaders in August, figures course conditions will play a big part in determining the international golf series.

"If Winged Foot is dried out and fast they could beat us," the little national amateur champion said yesterday. "If it's a slow course I don't see why we shouldn't take them."

Turnesa was one of ten leading amateurs named by the U.S.G.A. today to represent the United States against the English at Mamaroneck, N. Y., Aug. 19-20.

Others in the American contingent are Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, the 1948 British amateur champion; Robert (Skee) Riegel of Upper Darby, Pa.; Ray Billows of Stratsburg, N. Y.; Ted Bishop of Boston; Johnny Dawson of Los Angeles; Charles Kocsis of Royal Oak, Mich.; James McHale, jr., of Philadelphia; Bruce McCormick of Los Angeles and Charles Coe of Oklahoma City. Francis Ouimet will be the non-playing captain.

Tigers 'Interested' In Johnny Mize

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Billy Evans, general manager of the Detroit Tigers, who was a spectator at yesterday's game between the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates, said he had a strong interest in Johnny Mize, New York first baseman.

The Tigers need a first baseman, but just how Mize could be waived out of the National league, provided terms were agreed upon between the two clubs, is another problem. Mize, ironically enough, was on the bench yesterday because of a batting slump.

Cheerful good living is reflected in every room of this 7 room brick home. The decorations are sophisticated and yet informal. Thoughtfully planned for a heap of living. Each room has an individual tone. There is restful beauty in the Wedgewood blue living room. The spacious dining room is in decorators harmonizing wallpaper. The kitchen and breakfast rooms are done in wormy chestnut and contain every facility for efficiency and convenience. The entire home is teeming with interesting features such as, first floor powder room, large walk-in wardrobe adjoining the master bedroom, spacious cedar lined closet, swanky recreation room, with ventilating fan, marble top bar, storage space for card tables. We could go on and on and yet not cover all the details. This charming house is shaded by well-placed trees, a profusion of shrubs and flowers embelish the large lot with 2 car garage.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

DEAR MR. HOOVER:
IN THE EVENT OF WAR, THIS DIVISION HAS BEEN FULLY MADE AVAILABLE BY THE BOXING HALLS OF THE NATION FOR USE BY THE ARMED FORCES DURING THE WAR IN AIDING THE ARMED FORCES RECREATIONAL PROGRAMS.
IT IS MY OPINION THAT GREAT PLEASURE THAT WE DERIVED FROM THE SPORT OF BOXING AND WRESTLING IN THE PEACE TIME YEARS, WILL BE DOUBLED IN THE HEARTS OF THE SOLDIERS, SAILORS, AND AIRMEN OF THE NATION IF WE, AS A NATION, CAN CONTINUE THE PROGRAM OF BOXING AND WRESTLING IN THE ARMED FORCES.
IN ORDER THAT THE BOXING AND WRESTLING PROGRAMS MAY BE CARRIED ON, I HAVE ASKED THE BOXING HALLS OF THE NATION TO DONATE THE PROCEEDS OF ONE CONTEST EACH MONTH TO THE WELFARE FUND OF THE ARMED FORCES. I AM PLEASED TO SAY THAT ALL BOXING HALLS AND PROMOTERS HAVE AGREED TO DONATE THE PROCEEDS OF ONE CONTEST EACH MONTH TO THE WELFARE FUND OF THE ARMED FORCES.
IN THIS AND OTHER WAYS, THE BOXING HALLS AND PROMOTERS JOIN THE SERVICES, IS DEEPLY APPRECIATED.
IT IS NEEDLESS TO SAY, THE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS WHICH WILL EVENTUALLY FLOW INTO THE WELFARE FUND WILL BE EVEN FURTHER PROOF OF PATRIOTISM.

Questions Capacities Of Probers

B-36 Investigation Comes Under Fire

The next big show is scheduled to open it appears when Senator Hickenlooper releases the necessary microphones television cameras and klieg lights It is to be an exhibition match between the Navy and the Air Force, and the advertisements say that no holds are to be barred

The show is to be conducted by the Armed Services Committee of the House According to the advance billing by the chairman, Vinson — as reported by the Associated Press — the investigation has 'seven major objectives'

Among the seven major objectives, which the thirty - six Congressmen are going to shoot at, there are some stupendous objectives.

They are going 'to examine the performance characteristics of the B-36 bomber to determine whether it is a satisfactory weapon." They are going 'to examine the roles and missions of the Air Force and the Navy to determine whether or not the decision to cancel construction of the aircraft carrier United States was sound"

They are going 'to study the effectiveness of strategic bombing to determine whether the nation is sound in following this concept to its present extent"

The committee is not however, going to investigate its own capacity to investigate the performance characteristics of the B-36 bomber, the roles and the missions of the Navy and the Air Force, and the effectiveness of strategic bombing

That is assumed and taken for granted. Yet that is the very question which needs some discussion before the uproar starts.

The question is whether thirty-six congressmen, after cross - examining a long list of admirals and generals, can decide by a count of their own noses the issues which this committee proposes to decide

They are the issues which the best military and scientific minds of all countries are continually studying and debating They are the issues on which only the ignorant speak with certainty

They are the issues on which the more qualified the man, the more thoroughly informed the more intimate his knowledge of the hidden and essential details, the more tentative and experimental are his conclusions

They are issues involving the security of the United States, the self-confidence and morale of fighting men. They are issues which cannot be decided yes or no but only by a close calculation of alternative risks.

Yet these issues are to be 'investigated' and 'determined' by a public spectacle

When a congressional committee sets itself up to determine the performance characteristics of a bomber and the roles and missions of the various armed forces in the unknown strategical situations of a hypothetical war then surely it must be recognized that these investigating committees rush in where men with even a little wisdom would fear to tread

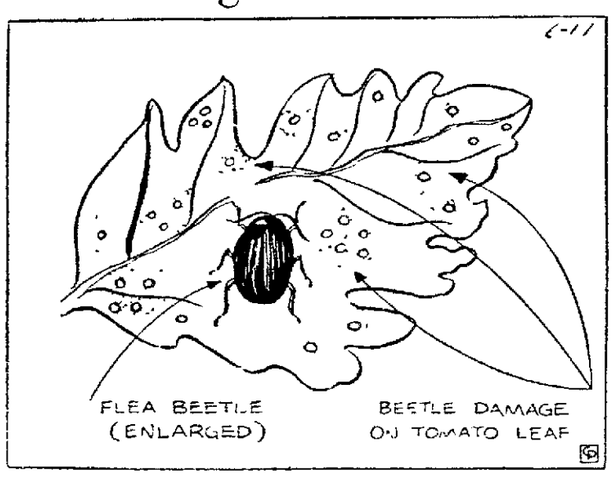
How To Fight Flea Beetles



By DEAN HALLIDAY
(Central Press Association)

Only the luckiest gardeners get through the summer without at least some trouble from pests and diseases of tomatoes One, for example is the flea beetle

These beetles are very destructive to tomatoes, as well as to potatoes eggplant spinach, peppers cabbage and cucumbers The beetles begin feeding by June and there are usually two generations of them

They are believed to be responsible for the spread of certain plant diseases such as the fungus causing early blight of tomatoes also early potato blight The corn flea beetle is blamed for carrying bacterial wilt of corn through a planting

A flea beetle greatly enlarged, is shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph It is a plump brown - black insect It is very active and moves with a hop that is so characteristic of the movements of the flea as to give it its name

As the flea beetle feeds it eats small, round holes in the leaves until they look as though they had been peppered with fine shot

Flea beetle damage to leaves of the tomato is illustrated. Unless the beetles are checked the foliage turns yellow, wilts and, when the damage is extensive, the afflicted plant dies

Dusting or spraying the plants with rotenone will give control if the compound is thoroughly applied The beetles are quick to detect unsprayed or undusted foliage areas and transfer their feeding activities to them

Another control method calls for spraying the plants at seven to 10 day intervals with a lime, arsenate of lead and Bordeaux mixture Use seven to nine tablespoonsful to each gallon of water

Output Of Steel Will Drop In July

Vacations To Close Plants

CLEVELAND — (UP) — Steel production will continue to fall off over the coming weeks, with a "substantial" drop due in July when many plants go down for vacations, the magazine Steel said today

Steel said the 'downtrend in steelmaking operations promises to accelerate over coming weeks' and that the current ingot rate has continued its slow decline which has been under way since March

"A substantial drop in production is in prospect for next month," Steel said, "when many plants will go down for mass vacations for anywhere from a week to two weeks.

'In some cases shutdowns are likely to be for even longer periods because of lack of new business This will further ease the pressure on the steelmakers a number of whom are expected to suspend operations in various departments for vacations and necessary repairs'

The magazine said the accelerating decline is reflected in pig iron production with some blast furnaces now being blown out because of lack of orders and with the probability they will not resume production until late summer or early fall

The trade journal said coke ovens also are being trimmed because of poor business prospects over the next few months

Steel, however, continues to be consumed in heavy volume, the magazine said Steel output currently is about 50 per cent above the monthly average for 1937 - 39 and about equal to the 1941 production. "There is no question steel buyers are eating into inventories and will be forced to return to the market before too long if current operating rates are maintained," the magazine said.

The ingot rate last week was at 86 5 per cent of capacity the lowest recorded since April 1948, aside from the Christmas holidays

District rates declined as follows Wheeling 11½ to 69 St Louis 7 to 66 5, Youngstown 4 to 89, Eastern Pennsylvania 2½ to 83 Chicago 2 to 96 5 and Buffalo 1 to 91 5 Detroit rose 11 points to 101 per cent, Cleveland ½ to 97, Cincinnati 3 to 97 and Pittsburgh 2 to 84

Formal Affair Listed Friday

ASHLAND — The new band shell, built by Mrs. Guy C. Myers as a memorial to her husband, at municipally - owned Brookside park will be opened Thursday evening. The first event in the new bowl will be a band concert directed by Dr. Louis E. Pete.

Formal opening will take place Friday night with a program featuring Ashland musicians and music organizations. The band shell and amphitheater will be turned over to the Ashland Ministerial association Sunday evening for the first of a series of Sunday night outdoor services.

Designed to replace the outmoded and outgrown bandstand, the new band shell, which is 110 feet high and 90 feet wide, will accommodate a 100-piece band, orchestra or choir on its stage, 65 in the orchestra pit and will seat 3,000 in its amphitheater.

The band shell is expected to be an ideal location for such civic events as band concerts, high school and college commencements, symphony orchestra, dramatic presentations and open air union church services during the summer.

Because this fine gift is for the enjoyment of the entire community, it is explicitly understood that this property is not to be used for either commercial or political purposes.

Located in the southeastern section of the park, the shell-amphitheater has been erected on ground which has also been donated to the city by Mrs. Myers. In 1937 she purchased 9.93 acres adjoining the park and turned it over for the community's use.

Senators Begin Hearings on $646,800,000 Fund Measure

Pensions, Colleges Involved

Adjournment Linked To Bill

COLUMBUS — (UP) — The Ohio Legislature begins its 25th week of work tonight with the spotlight on the senate finance committee which will hold first hearings on the record - high $646,800,000 biennial appropriations bills.

The committee has sheeduled daily meetings on the bill carrying some $361,000,000 for old age pensions, aid to schools and other subsidies, $38,000,000 for highway construction and $218,000,000 for running the state of next two years.

Final adjournment depends primarily on how quickly work can be finished on fiscal job. Chances were good that the session would run at least another month.

At the same time, the House finance committee will continue its work on the $60,000,000 additions and betterments bill providing funds from the state surplus for state buildings and construction.

The bill also will renew about $30,000,000 in unspent appropriations carried over from the last biennium.

Original requests for projects to be included in this bill ran more than double the $60,000,000 available. Committee hearings to date have featured hot competition among the five state universities and state agencies for a slice of the money.

The two-year appropriations bill was passed last Tuesday by the House, as the Democratic majority beat down Republican efforts for a flat six per cent across - the - board cut in appropriations

Not included in either of the two appropriation bills, but required by other provisions of law is an additional two-year spending total of $48,000,000.

Included in this is $1,000,000 in sales taxes to be distributed to counties and cities and an additional $1,000,000 monthly to pay off veterans' bonus bonds.

Bills are pending to increase the sales tax distribution by several million dollars each year and also to provide an additional $13,500,000 a year to schools.

These measures have passed the Senate. If the House should approve them, new tax measures would have to be passed or appropriations now carried in the other bills would have to be slashed heavily because funds are not available to meet them.

Library Gets Kiddies' Summer Stories

Apples, Indians, Campers In New Books

Among the new books for children which are available at the Mansfield Public library is "Where Are the Apples?" by Arthur Flory.

Flory also illustrated this colorful picture book for younger children. The story, with large pictures and few words, opens with a picture of a little girl peering into an empty barrel.

The book tells the story of how apples develop, beginning with the buds in spring and continuing through the ripening of the fruit in summer.

JONATHAN BANGS SAID "NO-O-O-O-O", by Loris Corcos, is a read - aloud picture book for two - year - olds. I think that three and four - year - olds will like it, too. Older brothers and sisters will enjoy reading it aloud.

PENNY GOES TO CAMP is the new Carolyn Haywood book. For boys who have and boys who haven't been to camp it is a perfect book. Neither Penny nor Peter wanted to go to camp at all. But when they got there they found fun, new friends and more things to do than ever before. It was the best summer of their lives.

INDIAN STORY

LOST CHILDREN OF THE SHOSHONES, by Evelyn Nevin, is the story behind Sacajawea This book begins when Sacajawea was a child and was captured by the Blackfeet Indians. It tells all the things that happened in the years following until Captain Meriwether and Captain Lewis met her and hired her to guide them on their famous expedition to the west. This will be popular by those who like their reading exciting

Two books, very different, are for older boys One, A FULL CREEL, by Henry Hall, is a book of fishing experiences. The author has fished for nearly everything and in all sorts of places. A lot of good advice is included, too.

Robert Bowen's new book, PLAYER - MANAGER, recounts the trials and tribulations of Chuck Lacey whose ideas of baseball strategy did not agree with his owners. Chuck believed in team spirit, his owner wanted grandstand plays and home runs. Chuck lost, and went down to baseball obscurity. He wasn't beaten, though, and the story of his fight back to fame is an engrossing one.

ADVENTURE IN IRELAND, by Dahris Martin, is the latest in this series of books about different countries. The heroine, Katherine Scott, lost both her parents, and chose to live with her grandfather in a small Irish village. She found life in the village very different than it had been in the city, and very hard to adjust herself to.

There's a pet pig to liven the scene, parties and dances, new school and new friends, all combined to make a delightful story.

Those Students From Overseas

VASTLY DIFFERENT from the "iron curtain" which has been thrown about Russia is the opportunity being given 32 students from 11 countries to travel in the United States, and to thus gain impressions of this country which will be of lifelong value and inspiration, whatever their futures may hold.

Their cross-country journey is so routed as to bring the party into Mansfield tomorrow afternoon, with a visit to Louis Bromfield's Malabar farm as a special feature of the evening and following morning.

There can be no better way of promoting international understanding and friendship than that studious young people of other countries be given opportunity to observe conditions in the United States and to see the advances that have been made under the experiment in democracy that is now under way here.

It would be valuable, in fact, if every young American, during the progress of his or her education, could be similarly privileged to see more of his own country—urban and rural—and to thus gain better understanding of the amazing accomplishments of the past half century, despite the handicaps of governmental blunders and retarding influences which prevent capacity operation of industrial, construction and agricultural facilities.

Needless to say, Mansfield will welcome these visiting young people from Europe and South America, and will wish for them every success as they later return to their homes and convey their impressions of America to their families and friends.

Petition Stage In Manager Plan

TODAY marks the opening of the actual work of securing signatures to petitions required as a preliminary to bringing the proposed council-manager plan of municipal government to a vote next November.

Yesterday's News-Journal contained a full-page advertisement which gave considerable information regarding this plan and its operation in a number of cities, also answers to various questions that arise in the minds of citizens. It would be a good idea for readers to clip and preserve this page for future reference.

There seems no reason why anyone should hesitate about signing a petition to bring this matter to a vote, as favorable action in November would do no more than lead to formation of a commission authorized to frame a charter which would be subject to later approval or disapproval.

It is also explained that city officials to be elected next November would serve their full two-year terms, regardless of any later change that may be made in the event a charter is approved.

When Rival CIO Factions Clash

WHILE violence has come to be accepted as a common occurrence in connection with picketing during a strike, the rioting that occurred last week-end in Fairmont City, Ill., must be regarded as a departure from routine.

In this instance it was not a controversy between union forces and non-unionists—it was a quarrel between two CIO factions as to which should have collective bargaining rights in a Fairmont City plant that has been hampered by a strike for the past ten months.

It is not uncommon for CIO and A. F. of L. unions to engage in jurisdictional disputes from time to time but that this lack of coordination should extend to rival groups in either of the organizations presents an oddity in the generally accepted meaning of "union."

It also reveals the need for reasonable government restraints against such excesses as are sometimes indulged in when orders by leaders compel action by union members that is out of accord with the public interest.

Helicopters Aid Exploration

ARCHAEOLOGISTS are beginning to find the helicopter an indispensable tool. The Stirling expedition to Panama, sponsored by the Smithsonian Institute and the National Geographic Society, used helicopters in the jungles. In the words of the leader, Matthew W. Stirling, "In half a day we accomplished what would have taken us up to two weeks by canoe and on foot."

It is not merely a matter of time saving. The view from above often leads to new discoveries. Few ancient sites have been as often or as carefully examined as Stonehenge, the gigantic temple of unknown builders which is England's most priceless historic relic. Yet from a plane a flyer was able, even after 3,000 years or more, to trace the line of the two chief avenues to points far beyond the known boundaries of the site. Without the airplane this discovery might never have been made.

Texas May Discard Poll Tax

ANOTHER southern state may vote out the poll tax. The Texas legislature has submitted a constitutional amendment abolishing the tax to a special election to be held on September 24.

To have a state of the size and prestige of Texas get rid of this limitation on voting rights would be a stunning blow to its supporters.

Many southerners have said that they were willing to enact civil rights measures on their own account. The secret might be forced to do so. A favorable vote in Texas would go much to support the truth of this statement.

Miss Janet Ackerman Becomes Bride Of Stanley John Packer On Sunday

The sheerest of marquisette was used for the lovely wedding gown worn by Miss Janet Marie Ackerman for her marriage to Stanley John Packer, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, in St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church. Rows of wide Chantilly lace trimmed the front panel of the skirt and tiered slightly to the back extending the full length of the wide long train. The sheer yoke dropped slightly off the shoulders and was edged in matching Chantilly. Numerous self-covered buttons fastened the long tight-fitting sleeves.

Made from the same lace as used on her wedding gown was the little heart shaped bonnet which held the fingertip veil of French silk illusion.

The Rev. John C. Melchert officiated for the single ring service which took place before an altar decorated with palms, ferns and two large beauty baskets of all white gladioli. Two seven-branch candelabra illuminated the altar. Large white satin bows marked the family pews.

A V was formed in the back by the skirt lace. Little short gauntlets were worn by all the attendants.

MANSFIELDERS PLAY HOSTS TO OHIO INTER-CLUB YACHTING ASSOCIATION

Mohican Sailing Club members had a busy weekend, playing host for the fourth annual regatta of the Ohio Inter-Club Yachting Association, which was attended by more than 500 Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Charles Mill Lake.

Guests from many yacht clubs in the state Pennsylvania and Michigan enjoyed a gala informal weekend party at the Mohican Clubhouse, in spite of the disappointment of no wind for their sails.

Shown in the accompanying pictures are Mansfielders who played a large part in the successful event.

Photograph (1) shows Commodore and Mrs. Carl Gabor, who served on the regatta committee. In (2) are five guests from the South Shore Yacht Club in Akron. Left to right are Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Zimmer of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Saylor of Akron and William Wagner of Akron, with "Zim Baby," the Zimmer yacht, which won first place in the lightning "Class A Yachts" classification. In photograph (3) are left to right, seated, Mrs. R. E. Brinker of Sandusky and Mrs. Harvey Bailey. Standing are Mrs. Al Schwein, Mr. Bailey, Commodore Brinker of the Sandusky Sailing Club, and Mrs. R. La Verne Henry.

Photo (4) shows Mrs. Gilbert Dobson and Mrs. Otis Cummins who were intensely interested in the Saturday afternoon races. Commodore Frank Janssen of the OICYA and Mrs. Janssen pose for News-Journal cameraman at the finish of the Saturday afternoon activities, in picture (5).

Mohican Sailing Club members who spent many hours in helping with registration and any other duties required for the three day session are shown in picture (6). They are Ralph Damlos, Frank Bissman, Mrs. W. Feigenbaum and Mr. Feigenbaum, as they stop to chat with Mrs. Roger Roseer and Mrs. Damlos, who sold tickets throughout the day.

Insert is of Charles "Pat" Siegenthaler, who served as chairman for the Regatta committee, and who is vice Commodore of the OICYA.

Picture (7) shows Commodore Glenn Macy, Mrs. Henry Huston, who is one of the few lady skippers in the organization, and C. S. Fernyak.

Guests began to arrive Friday evening and were greeted at the clubhouse with an informal "get-acquainted" party.

On Saturday the grounds took on a carnival air with colorful deck chairs dotting the banks, tents around the grounds, where food and drinks were sold, and men, women and children attired in bright sports attire. Following breakfast at 7 a. m. the races were held, followed by luncheon at 12 at the clubhouse. A card party had been planned for the ladies for Saturday afternoon, but was cancelled due to the interest in the afternoon races.

Dinner was served informally in a large tent at 7:30 p. m. afterwhich the Commodore's ball was held in the clubhouse. Dancing was enjoyed from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m., with music by Bill Yates' orchestra from Canton.

On Sunday the races continued in the morning, with lunch served at noon, and award of trophies made at 1:30 p. m.

Malabar Barn Dance Attracts Large Crowd

Finding a place to dance, stand or walk was like looking for a needle in a hay-stack at the Louis Bromfield home, Malabar, Saturday evening. Nearly 1200 of all ages, flocked to the author-farmer's home for the annual "pre-hay" barn dance, throughout the evening.

It was a festive evening with young and old joining in the square dance held in the large barn across from the Bromfield home.

Strangely enough the group didn't consist of the usual curiosity - seekers, who haunt the Bromfields almost daily. Those folks were there to enjoy the event for what it was.

They were members of Farm Bureaus, Youth Co-Operatives, and 4-H clubs, from all parts of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Kentucky. Fifty were present from the Hog-Callers' Association in Cincinnati.

Last year was almost a record crowd with 800 in attendance, but this year topped them all for the 9th annual barn dance.

Music and calling was by Billy Foster of Sunbury and his band.

The Bromfields had as their houseguests several from New York City, Dallas, Texas and Cherokee, Iowa.

Many Guests Attend Picnic

The Mooseheaven committee, Women of the Moose, held a picnic Thursday evening at North Lake park. There were nineteen members and fifteen guests present.

The guests were, Mrs. Michael Campanelli, retiring senior regent. Mrs. Cloyd Wycoff, new senior regent, Mrs. Lloyd Hughes, Mrs. Ted Haycock, Mrs. George Antezberger, Mrs. Raymond Simmons, Miss Eva Mayer, Mrs. William Schuff and daughters, Mrs. Harry Clever, Mrs. Vernon Milligan, Mrs. Helson Schubert, Mrs. Geneva Bell and Mrs. Cy Collins.

Secret pals were revealed and gifts exchanged. The new committee chairman, Mrs. Fred Lewis, was introduced. Games were the diversion of the evening. The next meeting will be a picnic July 22 at a place to be announced later.

NOMINATION

The regular meeting of the DAV Auxiliary will be held Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the clubrooms. There will be nomination of officers.

Do You Really Want to Take Off Ugly Fat?

Recently there have been a number of new reducing preparations on the market, some of them based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It is obvious that vitamins will not reduce the body weight, so one must depend on diet to reduce. But it is also obvious that one cannot go on a strenuous diet over a protracted period, and any weight lost will be restored if the former eating habits are gone back to.

So what to do? Well, here is a tip to you "overweight gals" who want to fight "the Battle of the Bulges" in a different way. Ask any well stocked Ohio druggist for four ounces of Rennel. Mix with 12 ounces of grapefruit juice and take two tablespoonfuls twice a day.

This preparation contains nothing harmful and the makers agree to refund your money on the very first bottle if it does not show you the way to lose ugly fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves.

Rennel is low in cost and is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Rennel. —Adv.
